What is this type of insurance?

This is an insurance policy, designed to additionally cover a level of indemnity for an insured for claims made against them as a result of property damage and/or bodily injury caused as a result of their business activities. Including occupation of their premises, the supply of products and/or any contract work undertaken away from their premises under an underlying policy, which runs concurrently.

What is insured?

Unless otherwise stated in your policy schedule, the following is insured:

- ✓ Cover to the limits of indemnity detailed in the schedule in accordance with the terms of the primary policy.
- ✓ Additional levels of indemnity related to an exhausted underlying policy.

What is not insured?

- * Cover where the underlying policy insurers do not admit liability or underlying limits of indemnity have not been exhausted.
- * Cover where the underlying policy is not maintained in full effect except for any reduction(s) or the aggregate limits contained therein solely by payment of a claim or claims during the period of insurance.
- * Any liability, loss or expenses directly or indirectly related to asbestos or asbestos derivatives.
- * Any liability arising under Data Protection regulation or legislation.
- * Where underlying policies contain an inner limit of indemnity, which is less than the overall aggregate where they become exhausted by reason of claims payments.
- * Any liability whether directly or indirectly caused by or in connection with any cyber related event
- * Perfluorinated Compounds, Perfluoroalkyl and Polyfluoroalkyl Substances (PFAS)

Are there any restrictions on cover?

- ! Endorsements shown in your policy schedule may exclude or limit cover.
- ! Proportional limits on costs and expenses related to the provision contained in the underlying policy and only with written consent.
- ! There are conditions applicable to all or some sections, which include but not limited to Claims procedures, and notification of risk changes. You should refer to the policy wording and endorsements for further details.
